
IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF UTAH

DUSTIN J. DIMMICK,
Plaintiffs,

v.

KRISTIE BOURDON et al.,
Defendants.

MEMORANDUM DECISION & THIRD ORDER REQUIRING SERVICE OF PROCESS

Case No. 2:13-CV-794-RJS

District Judge Robert J. Shelby

For a second time, the Court ordered service of this prisoner civil-rights complaint on the following defendants:

Kristie Bourdon, parole officer
Eric Peterson, Attorney General's Office
Clark Harms, Utah Board of Pardons (BOP) member
Angela Micklos, BOP member
Curtis Garner, BOP chairman
Jesse Gallegos, BOP member
Robert Yeates, BOP member

However, the summonses were for a second time returned unexecuted as to each one.

The Court again orders service of process on all the above-listed defendants. The Court has since obtained more correct addresses for each defendant. Clerk shall issue summons to be served upon Defendants. The United States Marshals Service (USMS) is directed to serve a properly issued summons and a copy of Plaintiff's Amended Complaint, along with this Order, upon the above-listed defendants.

Once served, Defendants shall respond to the summons in one of the following ways:

(A) If Defendants wish to assert the affirmative defense of Plaintiff's failure to exhaust administrative remedies in a grievance process, Defendants must,

- (i) within 20 days of service, file an answer;
- (ii) within 90 days of filing an answer, prepare and file a Martinez report limited to the exhaustion issue¹; and,
- (iii) within 120 days of filing an answer, file a separate summary judgment motion, with a supporting memorandum.

(B) If Defendants choose to challenge the bare allegations of the Complaint, Defendants shall, within 20 days of service,

- (i) file an answer; or
- (ii) file a motion to dismiss based on Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6).

(C) If Defendants choose not to rely on the defense of failure to exhaust and wish to pierce the allegations of the Complaint, Defendants must,

- (i) file an answer, within 20 days of service;
- (ii) within 90 days of filing an answer, prepare and file a Martinez report addressing the substance of the complaint; and,
- (iii) within 120 days of filing an answer, file a separate summary judgment motion, with a supporting memorandum.

¹ See Martinez v. Aaron, 570 F.2d 317 \(10th Cir. 1978\) (approving district court's practice of ordering prison administration to prepare report to be included in pleadings in cases when prisoner has filed suit alleging constitutional violation against institution officials). In Gee v. Estes, 829 F.2d 1005 \(10th Cir. 1987\), the Tenth Circuit explained the nature and function of a Martinez report, saying:

Under the Martinez procedure, the district judge or a United States magistrate [judge] to whom the matter has been referred will direct prison officials to respond in writing to the various allegations, supporting their response by affidavits and copies of internal disciplinary rules and reports. The purpose of the Martinez report is to ascertain whether there is a factual as well as a legal basis for the prisoner's claims. This, of course, will allow the court to dig beneath the conclusional allegations. These reports have proved useful to determine whether the case is so devoid of merit as to warrant dismissal without trial.

Id. at 1007.

(D) If Defendants wish to seek relief otherwise contemplated under the procedural rules (e.g., requesting an evidentiary hearing), Defendants must file an appropriate motion within 90 days of filing their answer.

The parties shall take note that new local rules governing civil cases are now in effect. The Approved Amendments to the Local Rules and Updated Rules are posted on the Court's website. This Court will order the parties to refile summary-judgment motions which do not follow the standards.²

Plaintiff is notified that (s)he may, within 30 days of its filing, respond to a Martinez report if desired. Plaintiff is further notified that (s)he must, within 30 days of its filing, respond to a motion to dismiss or summary-judgment motion. Plaintiff is finally notified that, if Defendants move for summary judgment, Plaintiff cannot rest upon the mere allegations in the complaint. Instead, as required by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 56(e), to survive a motion for summary judgment Plaintiff must allege specific facts, admissible in evidence, showing that there is a genuine issue remaining for trial.

ORDER

Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

- (1) USMS shall serve a completed summons, a copy of the Amended Complaint,³ and a copy of this Order upon the above-listed defendants.
- (2) Within 20 days of being served, Defendants must file an answer or motion to dismiss, as outlined above.

² See D. Utah Civ. R. 5-2 (Filing Cases and Documents under Court Seal); id. 7-1 (Motions and Memoranda); id. 26-2 (Standard Protective Order and Stays of Depositions); id. 56-1 (Summary Judgment: Motions and Supporting Memoranda).

³ See Docket Entry # 39.

- (3) If filing a Martinez report, Defendants must do so within 90 days of filing their answer. Under this option, Defendants must then file a summary-judgment motion within 120 days of filing their answer.
- (4) If served with a Martinez report, Plaintiff may submit a response within 30 days of the report's filing date.
- (5) If served with a summary-judgment motion or motion to dismiss, Plaintiff must submit a response within 30 days of the motion's filing date.
- (6) Summary-judgment motion deadline is 120 days from filing of answer.
- (7) If requesting relief otherwise contemplated under the procedural rules, Defendants must do so within 90 days of filing their answer.

DATED this 4th day of January, 2017.

ROBERT J. SHELBY
United States District Judge
